

Technical English Measurements and Superlatives Worksheet 2

Erasmus+

Without looking back at Worksheet 1, try to fill the gaps in the following sentences.

The iPod is the _____ popular piece of electronic equipment in the world at the moment.

The Eiffel Tower is _____ most famous French landmark.

At its _____ point, the Great Wall of China is about 12 meters high.

The _____ parts of the Great Wall of China are more than 2000 years old.

The Great Wall of China is the world's _____ wall.

The 747 Jumbo jet was the world's _____ passenger jet for many years.

The Earth is the _____ planet to you now.

A Ferrari was _____ successful car in the 2005 F1 season.

The Epson FR II, which weighs only 12.3 g, is the world's _____ flying robot.

The world's _____ photo is 32 feet high and 111 feet wide.

Now check Worksheet 1 to see if you have any answers there.

Without looking back at the sentences above, fill in the table below.

Popular	More popular	The _____ popular
Famous
Successful
High	Higher
Old
Long
Light
Large
Big	Bigger	